ABOUT YOUR FACILITATOR

Candida di Giandomenico

Candida is a seasoned master facilitator and presentation skills expert. She is also a qualified speech teacher with qualifications from Trinity College of London and the SA Guild of Speech and Drama Teachers College.

She has over 24 years in the learning and development space and has spent more than 10 years in executive roles for leading organisations.

Her experience as a learning and development professional and executive in large corporations means that she has not only had to train thousands to speak effectively but she herself has vast experience as a Master of Ceremonies, keynote speaker, trainer and facilitator, leader, consultant not to mention having presented at International and national conferences as well as to Executive and Board level panels.

Her speaking career started early and she was a finalist in the Inter high school public speaking competition and is an honours drama student. Candida has developed her own unique and compelling presentation style which is a powerful combination of teaching skill and first hand presentation experience. She will be sharing her expertise and her personal tips and techniques for owning the stage and delivering your message with impact.

With enough energy to keep you focused and energised, Candida will share her 35+ years of presenting experience in this engaging and practical programme designed to guarantee a significant improvement in attendees' ability to present. Candida also offers 1 on 1 coaching as well as support in developing and building professional presentations.
